MEMORANDUM FOR: DIRECTOR OF COMMUNICATIONS

THROUGH : Deputy Director (Plans)
Deputy Director (Support) /s/ LKW 20 Aug 57

SUBJECT : Letter of Appreciation

1. In the course of the past year events within the geographic area assigned to the Near East and Africa Division have required extraordinary action on the part of the Division and the Support elements of the Agency. The counsel, advice and action requested of the Office of Communications has been of the utmost importance to this Division in resolution of problems and in provision for uninterrupted communications under Emergency conditions. It is gratifying to note that all requests submitted to your office have been promptly and favorably acted on and have contributed in great degree to the successful accomplishment of the mission assigned this Division.

2. This memorandum is written to express my personal appreciation and that of members of my staff, who have worked so closely with members of your office, for the cooperative spirit with which you and your staff have approached our mutual problems. It will be considered a favor if you will express my appreciation to those members of your staff who have contributed to this effort.
